As you color these different sets of eyes – think about what Jesus meant when He said, “Come and see.” Might you be able to draw your eyes? Then, on the back of this coloring sheet write down some things your eyes have seen. Why do you think any of these things you’ve written may have happened?